SUPERSTITION'S BAD HABIT.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLT AGAIN RUNS WIDE ON THE TURN.

Marster Scores His Second Victory—Holscher Runs Soundly, but He Wants Races Longer Than a Mile.

Washington, D. C., April 3.—The average of three favorites won at Benning today. The worst upset was the defeat of Superstition in the second two-year-old race. He was heavily backed at odds-on because of his good showing with Jubilee and Glaucon Monday when it appeared as if he might have won but for going wide on the turn for home. He seemed the surest winner of the day, but after a sluggish beginning he ran wide again and just failed to land in the money.

In the closing race at one mile Marster, which graduated from the maiden class last week, beat the crack three-year-old Lord Bonergeres with ease, though he was doing his best at the end to finish in front of Bulwark and Holscher. The long distance champion of last season was badly outrun in the first part of the race, but was coming fast at the end. At any race over a mile he should beat the horses here. He seems to be rid of the soreness that bothered him last season, but cannot get down to business until he has gone six furlongs or more. Marster was heavily backed, the Virginia crowd cleaning up well on him.

The card was a poor one and the racing lacking interest. Among the arrivals today was Archie Zimmer from New Orleans. The Zimmer horses went through to New York to rest up for Aqueduct.

Tomorrow's program presents no feature of especial prominence, but it is up to the average standard of the meeting and with Tickle, Slickaway, Bel-demo, Merrimac, Lady Powell, Otwell, Euripides, Enore, Jack McKeon, Commodore Fontaine, Souvigny, Dr. Keith, Millstone, Old Colony, Yellowback; Betsy Binford, Ormonde's Right and Saylor among the horses likely to start, some interesting finishes may be the reward of those who journey out to the track.

YPSILANTI'S BRILLIANT SUCCESSES.

Story of the Seven Seasons of Jubilee's Half-Brother on the Turf in England.

The Jesse Brown Cup, which is for two-year-olds bred in Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia, will be run as the second race on the card at Benning the last day of the meeting, a week from Saturday. Billie Hibbs, Trey of Spades and Giles are among the eligibles, but since Jubilee's impressive victory on Monday, the first time out for that son of Compute and Stefanette, many of the horsemen and a vast number of the racegoers are saying that Fred Littlefield's colors will be in front at the finish.

If Jubilee is as good a horse as his half-brother, Ypsilanti, whose dual triumph in the Kempton Park Great Jubilee Handicap gave Littlefield the suggestion for the name of his youngster, there should be no question about his winning the Jesse Brown Cup and a great many more races. Ypsilanti is by Galore and was bred at Middleburg, Md., but he was never raced in this country. He was foaled in 1898 and was sold as a yearling to Richard Croker, who took him to England in the fall of 1899 to begin a brilliant career the following July at Newmarket. In seven seasons Ypsilanti started thirty-seven times, won sixteen races and $50,995. But these laurels were not all earned in the colors of Mr. Croker. Fact is that should one mention the name of Ypsilanti to Mr. Croker, the former Tammany chieftain would be most apt to wince.

Ypsilanti made his first start in a field of thirty-two two-year-olds and finished fifth. The next time out he was beaten two heads on the post and the third time out Lester Reiff rode him to victory in the Two-Year-Old Selling Plate at Hurst Park, the value of which was $500 to the winner. A. P. Cunliffe was at the trackside when the son of Galore won and took a fancy for him that led to his bidding him up to $2,100 at which price Mr. Croker let Mr. Cunliffe have the colt. Since that August day in 1900 he has been the property of Mr. Cunliffe and is probably now eating his well earned oats in that gentleman's barn and we may hear of his winning another race this year.

Mr. Cunliffe started him only once as a two-year-old, when he finished second for the Osmaston Nursery Plate. As a three-year-old Ypsilanti won the West Derby Stakes and the May Plate, was third in the Durdans Plate, third in the Ascot Highweight Handicap, unplaced in the Drayton Handicap, third in the Duke of York Stakes and unplaced in the Derby Cup. Thus early he displayed capacity for weight and distance, which, in after years, gave him distinction among the handicap horses of the world.

As a four-year-old he was unplaced in the Nottingham Spring Handicap and the Victoria Plate, second in the Durdans Plate, unplaced in the London Coronation Cup, won the Chesterfield Cup and was third in the Derby Gold Cup.

As a five-year-old he began the season by finishing third in the Lincolnshire Handicap. Over Norton, to which he was conceding a year and three pounds, and Porteuilis, to which he was giving seventeen pounds, beat him. His next out was for the Kempton Park Great Jubilee Handicap at one mile and a quarter, which he won with 113 pounds up, bringing his owner $13,275. His third and last start that year was in the Derby Gold Cup in which he finished unplaced.

As a six-year-old he was invincible in England, winning the Queen's Prize, one mile and a quarter with 126 pounds up; the Apprentice Plate at Kempton Park, one mile and a quarter with 128 pounds up; the Kempton Park Great Jubilee for the second time, one mile and a quarter with 131 pounds; walked over for the Rothschild Plate at Manchester; won the Open Plate at Hurst Park, one mile and five-eighths with 129 pounds, and walked over for the Rothschild Plate at Windsor in August. That was his last race in England that year, but Mr. Cunliffe had nominated him for the Prix de Newmarket at Paris and in October he crossed the channel to be defeated by Monsieur Charvat and Ma Lady, to both of which he was conceding weight.

The following year, as a seven-year-old, Ypsilanti won the Jockey Club Plate at Warwick, one mile and three-quarters with 141 pounds up, St. Kitts, 114 pounds, being the only starter against him. Jeddah, carrying 107 pounds, started against him for the Rothschild Welter Plate at Kempton Park, but Ypsilanti carried 138 pounds and beat him a head in the race of one mile and a half, the betting being 1 to 20 Ypsilanti. He tried again for the Kempton Park Great Jubilee, but could do no better than fourth, Ambition, Fermoye and Union Jack finishing in front of him. His weight was 139 pounds. His concessions beat him. In his next out he beat Ivan, the only starter against him, fifteen lengths for the Jockey Club plate at Lewes. This race was at one mile and a half and he carried 134 pounds. The betting was 1 to 66 Ypsilanti. For the Open Plate at Hurst Park, one mile and five-eighths, Wargrave was the only starter against him. He picked up 135 pounds and beat Wargrave twenty lengths. The layers held Ypsilanti at 1 to 20. His last race in 1905 was for the Peveril of the Peak Plate at Derby in September, in which he was unplaced.

Last year he started four times, finishing fourth in the Liverpool Spring Cup, third in the Haydock Park Handicap, unplaced in the Trial Stakes at Ascot and won the Rothschild Plate at Windsor, carrying 140 pounds over the one mile and three-eighths.

If Jubilee has in him these qualities Fred Littlefield need not worry about feed bills, for Jubilee will bring him much money and more fame. The following is a record of Ypsilanti's performances and earnings:

GRAND NATIONAL HONORS TO NEWHEY.

Rides Eremon to Victory with One Stirrup—Details of the Great Steeplechase.

The cable brought the news from England March 22 that Eremon, making all the running, had won the Liverpool Grand National Steeplechase by six lengths from Tom West, with Patlander third, but there were none of the interesting details of the race. These have just come with the arrival of the London papers of March 2, and the victory of Stanley Howard's seven-year-old son of Thurlies is emphasized by the fact that jockey Newey broke one of his stirrup leathers at the second fence and rode the remaining four miles of the race with one iron. The London Sporting Life describes the running as follows:

"Mr. Coventry had little trouble with his field, and only one false start occurred, and when they did get away Bouchal Ogue, who had gone to the rear, was left some fifteen lengths. At the second attempt they steamed off. Eremon at once dashed to the front, followed by Rathvale, Roman Law, Timothy Titus, Tom West, Kilts, Buckaway II., and Red Lad, with Loop Head, Detail, and Extravagance, heading Centre Board. Then came Napper Tandy and Patlander, Bouchal Ogue whipping them in.

"At the first fence Kilts fell and broke his neck, and at the third Rathvale came down and went on loose. Here Timothy Titus took a temporary lead of Eremon, Roman Law, Centre Board, and Extravagance, York II. going on next in front of Asctie's Silver and Tom West, whilst Drumree was now last again. Making the railway turn at the top of the course, Eremon again joined Timothy Titus, the pair side by side being six lengths clear of Red Lad and Detail; then came Extravagance, Roman Law, York II., Ravenscliffe, and Patlander, Bouchal Ogue creeping up in front of Tom West. Centre Board refused at the fence on the turn, and at the open ditch Timothy Titus came to grief.

"Eremon was now out on his own in front of Extravagance, York II., Red Lad, Ravenscliffe, Seisdon Prince, Tom West, Patlander, and Roman Law, with Bouchal Ogue many lengths ahead of Loop Head, whilst Asctie's Silver was now toiling hopelessly in the rear. At the obstacle before the water a loose horse interfered with Extravagance, and opposite the stands the latter fell, and Newey on Eremon had to hit the riderless Rathvale over the head to keep him off his mount. Eremon then went on from Patlander, Ravenscliffe, Tom West, and York II., with Barabbas II. two lengths in front of Red Lad, Roman Law, Bouchal Ogue, Seisdon Prince and Loop Head, Asctie's Silver and Buckaway II. racing side by side in the rack.

"At the second fence in the country Seisdon Prince was pulled up, and at Beecher's Brook York II. fell, a similar fate befalling Roman Law. Here Eremon shot right away from Patlander, Tom West and Bouchal Ogue moving up into third and fourth positions in front of Red Lad, Ravenscliffe, and Barabbas II., whilst Napper Tandy fell back in company with Asctie's Silver. Coming to the fence before Valentine's Brook, Detail fell, and at the ditch Red Lad failed to rise, and brought down Bouchal Ogue and Loop Head, Ravenscliffe improving his position.

"After jumping Valentine's Brook, Eremon was twenty lengths in front of Tom West, who was an equal distance from Ravenscliffe, with Barabbas II. and Patlander next, only the five being left in it, as the rest were tailed off. Coming along the racecourse, Tom West began to close with the leader. Both successfully negotiated the last two fences, although hampered by the loose Rathvale, but when it came to the pinch, Eremon had most left in him, and amidst great enthusiasm sailed home a gallant winner by six lengths; Patlander just beat Ravenscliffe a neck for a bad third place. Then came Barabbas II. fifth, Asctie's Silver twenty lengths away sixth, Buckaway II. (who fell five fences from home and was remounted) a long way off seventh, and Napper Tandy the only other to complete the course. The time was 9:45."

The special commissioner for the same paper comments upon the race as follows:

"There is jubilation in the camp of the Eremonites for their cup of joy is filled to the brim and running over. It was a great performance on the part of the victor—it was a greater on the part of his jockey, Newey. While the race was in progress none of us realized what a wonderful feat we were beholding, but when the cheering had subsided we were told that one of Newey's stirrup leathers broke at the second fence, and that he had ridden the remaining four miles with only one iron. The fact that Eremon at the third and nearly all the subsequent fences had jumped sideways had been the subject of general comment, and here was the explanation. I had almost started off by writing that Conlithwaite (the trainer of Eremon), is the hero of the hour, but surely it would be truer to state that the honor belongs to Newey.

"Newey's anxieties did not begin and end with the broken leather, for the riderless Rathvale, directly responsible for Extravagance's fall at the water, at any moment might have brought Eremon down. This was the only chance the backers of Tom West had of winning their money. With regard to Extravagance, it was generally conceded that he was one of the best, if not the very best, looking horses in the field so far as fitness is concerned. None of his rivals shaped better the first time round, and but for the interference of Rathvale he would almost certainly have been one of the first three past the post.

"Mr. Hastings was grievously disappointed with the running of Asctie's Silver. He expressed himself confident of steering last year's winner to victory again, but the son of Asctie was never in the fighting line, and though he was one of the eight to get the course, was a quarter of a mile off when Eremon reached the goal. Timothy Titus bit the dust at the very same place at which he fell two years ago, and poor old Duncree fell at the Canal Turn the first time round. I am afraid his days of usefulness are over. When Red Lad fell at the open ditch during the second circuit, he was beaten, but York II. was going well until he fell at Beecher's. The fatal accident to Kilts at the very first fence, and the serious injuries which Harper met with by reason of the smash, was the most regrettable feature of an interesting contest. It was a poor field so far as the quality of the competitors is concerned, yet the majority of the horses were well trained, and the spectacle was one that presented all the usual picturesque features. There was a great crowd and the proceedings were conducted under ideal conditions, for it was a brilliant afternoon."

Slack Wins with No Stirrups.

Something in the same line of jockeyship, only more so, took place in the Union Stock Yards Steeplechase at Hawthorne, June 15, 1893, when Gwyn R. Tompkins' grand steeplechase mare Can Can defeated the Corrigan crack Cicero. The splendid daughter of Prince Charlie carried 170 pounds and Cicero 169. From start to finish it was one of the most bitterly contested steeplechases ever run and to make it more sensational Slack, on Can Can, lost both stirrups when the race was no more than half over and rode the remainder of the route depending on a tight knee grip and hand riding.

MEMPHIS MATINEE PROGRAM.

Memphis, Tenn., April 3.—Henry McDaniel and "Mickey" Shannon, who are the committee on arrangements for the matinee at Montgomery Park Saturday, have completed the program for the races. T. M. Toher has been selected as clerk of the course and the entries will close with him at the track Friday morning at 10 o'clock. The program is as follows:

First Race—Silver cup, for two-year-olds, five pounds below the scale, three furlongs.

Second Race—Silver cup, short course steeplechase, for four-year-olds and upward, fifteen pounds below the scale, about one and one-quarter miles.

Third Race—Silver cup, for two-year-old colts and geldings, eight pounds below the scale, four furlongs.

Fourth Race—Silver cup (to winning rider), for four-year-olds and upward, thirty pounds above the scale; maidens allowed ten pounds; to be ridden by members of Country Club; one mile.

Fifth Race—Silver cup, for two-year-olds and upward; three-year-olds, 100 pounds; four-year-olds and upward, 110 pounds; six furlongs.

Sixth Race—Silver cup (to winning rider), for mules of any age; catch weights, three furlongs.

LYNE WINS A STAKE RACE.

Lucien Lyne rode his first winner of this year in England, March 21, at Liverpool. His victory was on Amber, a three-year-old gelding, by Islington, in the Union Jack Stakes at one mile. Lyne rode at 128 pounds, got away from the post in front, led all the way and at the end Amber was merely cantering. He had a mount in the Brookley Stakes at Lincoln on the previous day, but finished unplaced, so he scored with his second mount.

DR. LEGGO PULLS UP LAME.

TROUBLE IS IN HIS LEFT FORE ANKLE AND IS SERIOUS.

Wool Sandals' Surprising Victory in the Oakland Feature—Bad Starting Causes Defeat of St. Francis.

Oakland, Cal., April 3.—Wool Sandals, after sustaining a series of recent defeats by selling platers when quoted at prohibitive odds in the betting, came out today with a novice rider on his back and at odds of 20 to 1, vanquished the pick of the local handicap division, including such celebrities as Dr. Leggo, Edwin Gum, Collector Jessup, Vox Populi and five other tried performers, in the feature handicap at one mile and 50 yards. Dr. Leggo all but broke down in the race or he would probably have won. After an examination of the injury, which is located in the left ankle, experts were of the opinion that McCafferty's grand horse will not return to races for a long time to come.

Starter Holtman's bad work at the barrier was responsible for the defeat of St. Francis in the third. This horse, which was heavily backed, was virtually left at the post, but finished a close up third.

M. Preston and W. Knapp will have mounts in tomorrow's races. Knapp will ride for J. Curl, who has a string of fifteen in training. McCafferty traded his contract on Lycurgus for another colored boy, J. Hunter. The latter's employer, W. Walker, took the worst of it in order to secure a lighter weight jockey.

Fully an average card is presented for tomorrow and with Exchequer, Rhinestone, Memorize; Hugh McGowan, Bonar, Eduardo; Vincentio, Lone Wolf, Morendo; E. M. Brattain, Nonie Lucille, Romaine; Lord Nelson, Princess Wheeler, Water Thrush; Sugarmaid, Massa and Gateway among the horses entered, there is good reason to expect interesting racing.

H. Forsland.

M'CORMICK WINS THE TWO FEATURES.

Emergency Takes the Magnolia Selling Stakes and Tiling Scores in the Mile Race.

New Orleans, La., April 3.—James McCormick wound up his season in New Orleans by winning the two feature races at City Park this afternoon. Tomorrow he will ship his stable to New York. With his fast sprinter, Emergency, he captured the Magnolia Selling Stakes while Tiling took the mile condition race in handy fashion. Both horses were ridden by Garner. Emergency shouldered top weight, set most of the pace and beat Quinn Brady out a length and a half. Only five horses went to the post in this race and for so small a field there was a lot of rough riding. Before they had gone a quarter of a mile Planute was sharply cut off and crowded back. John L. Inglis was next to suffer. He was racing along between Emergency and Quinn Brady and they repeatedly bumped and finally crowded him back and out of it. At the three furlong post Garner cut across to the inside with Emergency and in doing so he crowded Quinn Brady against the fence, causing the latter to stumble. There were some who looked for a disqualification, but none was made. The race had a gross value of $2,090, the winner's portion of which was $1,740.

Sir Montague Allen wired Francis Trevelyan today offering him the position of presiding steward at the coming spring meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club.

W. Lewis, acting for George Holla, arranged for first call on the services of jockey Hogg for the Churchill Downs' spring meeting.

An attractive program is offered for tomorrow afternoon with many speedy horses entered, among which may be pointed out Mollie Ball, Masker, Enfin; Charfield, Lights Out, Saul; Lorimer, Prince Bowling, Convenient; Pasadena, Lancastrian, Grenade, Columbia Girl, Robin Hood, Frontenac; Cutter, Sally Preston, Polly Prim; Nellie Burn, Brilliant and Cull as affording a guarantee of the general excellence of the sport in store for local patrons.

T. K. Lynch.

JOHNSON RIDES WIDE ON TURNS.

"Tom Mannix, to whom Jockey J. Johnson is under contract, should take the lad and read him a lecture on his habit of going wide with his mounts at the turn for home," says the Morning Telegraph. "Johnson's fault last year was a desire to get to the inner rail, and this brought trouble to the lad on more than one occasion. He has taken another tack now, however, and evidently thinks the shortest way home is by the overland route. Johnson is riding in splendid form at Benning this spring with this exception, and he should speedily take measures to correct this fault."

YOUNG HENRY'S FIRST WINNER.

Henry, who rode Lady Powell to victory in the second race at Benning Monday, is one of James McLaughlin's promising apprentice boys. He had never ridden in a race before this meeting and it was his first winner. The youngster can ride at eighty-five pounds.

KOERNER IS AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—Charles Koerner, Louisville's crack jockey, is back from California to remain ten days before going east to ride this season.

ANTI-RACING LAWS.

When the spotlight loving citizen finds life dull and dreary, he looks around for something to club with the club of reform. He selects racing as perennially, and as naturally, as the sap flows upward.

The iniquities of three per cent. margin sales on the stock exchange, the even smaller margin on the real estate deals, the scandalous adulteration, depreciation, and substitution in almost every line of food supply, the marvellous one hundred per cent. retail profit on fish and bread, and the million other things which affect the lives of the very poor, and of the very young babies, are passed by, and "racing" the one iniquity of the age, is selected.

The most extraordinary somersaults are turned, the most miraculous funerals of individual self respect held with becoming pomp, and the rationally minded man simply gasps when he finds statement after statement printed under the names of prominent men, such statements being not only lies "all wool and a yard wide," but magnificently idiotic lies at that.

The district attorney of New York gathers the Brooklyn tracks under his sheltering wing, and gravely states that a certain gentleman (who never bets), would not go to the track unless he could bet; there is not a crime against the Decalogue, from bank wrecking to infanticide, which is not laid before the door of racing, and the sensational and hysterical clergy sit up and howl, while their more sober-minded brothers of the cloth are publicly bewailing the depreciation of church attendance. Is it possible the depreciation comes as a rebuke to overzealous clerics to mind their own palatable business a little better, and let the business—which is the pleasure—of a large portion of the nation alone?

Once again, as in other years, the effervescence and efforescence rose like a cloud in the senatorial and congressional glasses, and withered at a breath of common sense, as such ebullitions always die.

The magnificent grant of racing to the important state fairs, the bulk of which could not be held without, tells the story. The farmers would much rather receive the freely given emoluments from the racing associations than stand to be shot at by the appropriation of an even larger grant from the state. The racing tax they are sure of in its entirety, the state appropriation—judging from past experience—they know not when they might get, nor how much of it they might get. It is estimated to take eighty cents of every parochial charity dollar to distribute the remaining twenty cents—generally about five months after the said dollar has been received.

The recently instituted free stallions of superbly high class and pure blood, stationed at widespread sections of the state, to nearly forty in number, show to what extent racing has benefited and will benefit the equine stock in the hands of common people.

The thoroughbred horse is the live germ of every type of horse, the only fountain to which each distinct variety can look for infusion or development, and, as has been said over and over again, the United States is the only country in the world without a competitor as the horse nursery of the world. Not a nation but must come to us for its re-mounts, and its surplus utilitarian stock, and this will be the case for probably another fifty years. After that no one can foresee.

If by that time we have not built our equine supply house on a rock, it will be the fault of these anti-racing fanatics who have been permitted to turn our national freedom into license, and in making a race-show of themselves, also hold the nation up to laughter.

It is time the burlesque was stopped. Racing brings into every section where racing occurs from $50,000 to $100,000 daily which would not otherwise come, but would be diverted to far away states only too anxious to gather within their limits the full grown plant reared in the rich and fertile east. The amount of cash invested, turned over, and paid, for employment and merchandise of all types, is beyond computation, and the racing tax to the agricultural societies alone amounts to about $200,000 yearly to the state of New York.

This handful of meddlers are utterly impervious to criticism, they even lack the saving sense of humor which surely make them legislate themselves out of active existence, they have been so accustomed to stand up and talk, talk, talk, where no one rises to interrupt or differ with them, that they have become intoxicated with their own verbosity, and with the spotlight which is its trimmings. If they would trouble racing—and other outside issues—less, and attend more to their palpably neglected spiritual duty, the modern church might be as satisfactorily successful as the modern well conducted racecourse. On the printed statements of many representative prelates this is far from being the case at present—Sports of the Times, New York.

OWNERSHIP OF LEXINGTON TRACK.

The breeders of central Kentucky, headed by O. H. Chenault, Milton Young, E. F. Clay, James E. Clay, J. N. Camden, Jr., Catesby Woodford, Woodford Clay, T. J. Carson and others have agreed to raise $15,000 to be used for purchasing stock in the new racing association that will be organized at Lexington in a few days. The racetrack is now owned by the syndicate organized by Max Samuelson, but they bought the track merely out of sentiment in order to save it, and the meetings which will be held here each year must be backed by breeders. The syndicate has advanced $25,000 on the track, but the Lexington breeders will raise $15,000 and pay back $5,000 of this money. The Louisville and Lexington turfmen will then give five notes of $9,000 each payable in one, two, three, four and five years from date. The spring meeting at Lexington will be held on the dates allotted by the commission, that is, from April 27 to May 4 inclusive.

H. B. DURYEA AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., April 3.—H. B. Duryea is here to inspect his broodmares and foals at Kirklevington Farm. He will leave for New York in a day or two.

 Went to post at 4:57. Off at once to a good start. Won galloping; second and third easily. Alpenmarchen got away fully in his stride and always showing the most speed was rated in front and came away in the stretch to win in a canter. Millstone ran well, was always second best and as easily saved second place. Sally K. was sluggish in the early stages, but was closing up resolutely through the stretch. Chinela showed early speed, but tired badly in the stretch. The others were never contenders.

 Went to post at 5:23. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won ridden out; second and third driving. Marster was best at the weights and after setting all the pace had enough left to win decisively, although he had to be hustled along right at the end. Bulwark ran in suddenly improved form and came fast in the stretch. Holischer could not keep up in the early stages, but closed a big gap and finished so fast that he would have won in a few more furlongs. Saylor and Saylor Boy were never contenders. Lord Bouengeres followed the winner closely to the stretch, then quit badly and ran below his true form.

 Winner—B. g. by Bloomsbury—Sister to Ruth Ryan (trained by G. P. McNeil).
 Went to post at 1:42. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Titus H. quickly established a long lead and held sway to the end, never seriously menaced. George P. McNear was a prominent contender throughout and showed sudden improvement. Dr. Sherman, from an inside flatfooted start, got into a good position at once and finished fast, but swerved all over the stretch. Last Faustus, away badly, closed a big gap and put up a cracking effort. Distributor, away poorly, was repeatedly shut off and forced to pull up and came with a rush at the end. Sheen was crowded to the fence and pulled up when seemingly sure of third. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
 Incorrect weight in entries—Nettie Hicks, 103.

 Winner—Ch. c. by Wadsworth—Fonsie (trained by T. H. Stevens).
 Went to post at 2:06. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily; third driving. Huston after being preserved in close attendance on the pacemaker for a mile and a half, drew up in the stretch and won off pulling up. Briers, inadequately handled, made the running at an exhaustive pace to the stretch, where Buxton weakly relinquished the lead and his mount finished second with plenty in hand. Daniel C., after trailing the first two, loomed up momentarily on the last turn, but gave way in the final drive. Governor Davis was too sore to extend himself and was hopelessly outpaced all the way. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Time, 2:48, 47½, 1:01, 1:08.
 Winner—Ch. m. by Handsome—Misty Morn (trained by W. L. Stanfield).
 Went to post at 2:55. At post 5 minutes. Start very bad. Won handily; second driving; third the same. Misty's Pride secured a flying start, but indulged Bill Mayham with the lead to the stretch, where she drew out and earned a lucky victory. Blondy was off well but was taken back in the early running and finishing like a shot in an extra good form. St. Francis, nearly left, closed a tremendous gap in the middle running and challenged in the stretch but tired right at the end. Bill Mayham was held at the post and broke badly, but ran into a quick lead and set a stiff pace to the stretch, where he quit. Grasscutter got away poorly, but made up ground rapidly and loomed up momentarily on the last turn, then quit badly. The others were far outclassed.
 Scratched—68000 Phalanx, 110; 67935 Governor Orman, 104; 67510 Ramus, 107.
 Incorrect weight in entries—Rose Pompon, 93.

Time, 2:38, 48, 1:14, 1:40, 1:43½.
 Winner—Br. c. by Woolsthorpe—Winged Sandals (trained by R. Campbell).
 Went to post at 2:59. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Wool Sandals, from a good start, held a lucky forward position in the early running and moving up rapidly on the far turn drew out in the last furlong and ran a game race. Drewan Gum, away poorly and carried wide on the first turn, closed an immense gap and finished with a great rush. Colorado Jessup maintained close pursuit of the pacemaker throughout and showed in front when straightened for home, but tired finally after being bumped. Dr. Leggo held a good position for six furlongs, but was pocketed and forced to pull up in the last quarter. The Borgian made the running for nearly seven furlongs and then quit. Vox Populi was shuffled to the rear and made up a lot of ground and is extra good. Supreme Court was never dangerous. Rubric was badly outpaced and ran a bad race. Princess Titania failed to stay.
 Scratched—67872 Beechwood, 94.
 Overweights—Tarp, 2 pounds.

68069 FIFTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. (1:51½—4—105.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $325.

BETSEY BINFORD (See Third Race).

TWO-YEAR-OLDS UNDER THEIR SIRE.

Cesarion Heads the List—Notasulga Largest Individual Winner—Interesting Statistics.

During the months of January, February and March 248 races for two-year-olds were run and they were won by 136 colts and fillies, the get of ninety sires. Milton Young's young stallion Cesarion is at the head of the sires with five winners of nineteen races and $7,942. The unbeaten Mollie Montrose is the best one of his representatives. Her eight races have netted $3,710. Royal Flush III, ranks second with four winners of ten races and $7,765. Firestone, sold by S. C. Hildreth to T. H. Williams for $10,000, contributed $3,830 of this. Peep o'Day comes next with four winners of seven races and $7,242. Abbey, Dew of Dawn and Early Tide, all bargains, contributed the bulk of this. Barney Schreiber's Sain is fourth, with four winners of eight races and $4,545. E. M. Fry, being the chief contributor. Pirate of Penzance, the McGrathiana veteran, now on the pension list, is next with two winners of nine races and $4,425. They are Martha Jane and Great Pirate, the latter a colt of high quality. The Commoner is represented only by Notasulga, recently sold for $5,000. She has won $4,045—more than any other horse of her age. Firestone, E. M. Fry, Mollie Montrose, Braggart and Ziephen are the only other winners of $3,000 or more.

Only three of these 136 winners brought more than $1,000 as yearlings. They were Orphan, by Fatherless, $2,600; Firestone, by Royal Flush III, $1,100, and Rustle, by Russell, $1,600. The cheapest one of the lot is Katherine Murphy, by Henry of Navarre, $50. Orena, by St. Maxim, was the next cheapest. She brought $75 and has won $1,150. There are many bargains among the winners of this year. Following is the list of the two-year-olds arranged under their sires, the records being for the entire months of January, February and March:
